PROFILE

I am an ambitious Software Engineering undergraduate at ICBT Campus (awarded by Cardiff Metropolitan University, UK) with a strong foundation in programming, web development, and software solutions.

Alongside my technical expertise, I bring creativity and precision as a freelance seamstress.
I'm fluent in Sinhala and English, with moderate proficiency in Tamil, and excel in public speaking, hosting events, and team collaboration.

I am seeking an internship or entry-level role to contribute to innovative projects while further enhancing my technical skills.
